BIG 4 CONSIDER SAAR PROTEST

PARIS, May 21—The German delegation has been granted an extension of seven days, or until May 29, in which to reply in full to the peace terms, according to an official announcement.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German delegation, in asking an extension of time stated further notes were being prepared, and that it would be impossible to complete them by 1 p. m. Thursday when the time limit is up. He said that Germans desired more time to study a number of questions in the treaty, which they had not yet had an opportunity to examine.

PARIS, May 22—The German peace delegates will make an eleventh hour bluff to break off negotiations just to test the Allies' determination according to belief expressed in official French circles today.

Once the enemy sees the Allies mean business—realize that the economic blockade will be tightened and sees the Allied army spring to attention ready to march into Germany—either the present or substitute delegates will sign "under protest," is the way the French have figured it out.

The "big four" this morning took up the German protest of conditions under which the French will obtain favorable concessions in the Saar valley. This serves as a break in the distribution of mandates which have occupied the attention of the "big four" for several days. No enthusiasm is being registered by American delegates over acceptance of the mandatory over Constantinople under the present plans.

Scheidemann Preaches Protest

By Carl D. Groat

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, May 21 (Delayed)—One hundred thousand Independent Socialists today staged a demonstration in the Lustgarten in favor of an immediate peace. They bore numerous red flags and banners with the inscription "we want only peace, bread and work." After they had been addressed by several speakers the Independent Socialists marched to the Wilhelmplatz where 25,000 Majority Socialists were holding a demonstration against the treaty. Before the appearance of the Independent Socialists Chancellor Schiedemann addressed the crowd declaring that "protest is Germany's only weapon."

Pact Not Wholly Satisfying to Wilson

PARIS May 22—That President Wilson himself is not satisfied with the German peace treaty was the answer his friends made today to the accumulating objections of many of the American commissioners which came to a head this week through the tentative resignation of nine of the members.

The President, his friends say, believes the treaty is the best it is possible to obtain considering all the conditions and come as near as possible to representing the principles through out during the past six wear months. Friends of the President said that when the whole story of the conference is told it will be understood why the treaty contains just what it does and why there are certain omissions.

BOALSBURG COMPANY DISCHARGED TODAY

CAMP DIX, N. J., May 22—More than 1,200 members of the 28th division are scheduled to be discharged here today. Included in the list are the 107th Machine Gun Battalion, Co. F of the 109th Inf. and a detachment of 60 men of the 108th Machine Gun Battalion. Members of the 110th Inf. wore smiles today in anticipation of their discharge scheduled for today. A large portion of the 109th Inf. departed yesterday.

METHODIST CENTENARY SUCCEEDING

PITTSBURGH, May 22—One hundred and sixty churches of the Pittsburgh area comprising conferences in Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia reported today that they had "gone over the top" for the Methodist Centenary fund making a gain of half a million in the area within 24 hours. Allegheny county churches reported a total of $1,184,500.026 pledged and churches of the entire area reported $4,516,265 pledged.

WEATHER HOLDS UP NC 4

WASHINGTON, May 22—Rough seas with a swift wind sweeping the Azores today necessitated further postponement of the NC 4 jump off for Lisbon.

LOCAL TALENT MIGHT
ASSIST AT NEXT
WEEK'S CARNIVAL

According to 'The Billboard' a theatrical magazine, Spencer's Celebrated Shows which are billed to appear here next week under the auspices of the Moose are making a herculean effort to assemble a great aggregation of amusements by the time they arrive here. It is not known of what of what the Spencer Shows consist, at this time and just what attractions they will have to offer when they land here, depends probably on what success they have in their advertising campaign for attractions. A large heavily displayed want ad in The Billboard states as follows:

SPENCER'S CELEBRATED SHOWS
WANT

Owing to disappointment, ten-in-one show, or will furnish complete equipment to experienced man who can manage and frame same. Want uniformed band, eight pieces, or man to organize same. Wire quick. Want fat girl for swell Platform Show. Want Midget to feature. Can still place a few concessions, low flat rental; Knife Rack, Cut Flowers, Poultry, Palmistry, and Shooting Gallery. Want promoter who can step some. The advertisement goes on to state that the show will play Clearfield, the week of the 26th.

We reproduce this advertisement for the purpose of showing that the Spencer Shows are doing all in their power to assemble a great array of attractions for the Hillsdale exhibition, and for the further purpose of assisting them to get this talent they so much desire. Mr. H. L. Davis, the bond broker of DuBois, testifies to the effectiveness of The Progress as an advertising medium, and we believe that by reprinting this advertisement the carnival will or may be able to get the talent they desire right in this community. For instance, the Ten-in-One aggregation could be provided by the versatile and able members of the 'Mikado' company. Then we have two or three ten man bands in this community who might be induced to go on the carnival circuit. When we broach the Fat Girl subject, we must be rather guarded in our statements but old Clearfield no doubt can produce the goods. As to the Midget we have no one to refer to at the present, but those interested can mail their applications to The Progress and they will be handed over to the proper persons in confidence. We have several who will buy concessions. Promoter Katzmans will fill the bill for the promoter who can step some. He put Boardman on the map. And we feel sure that Clearfield can furnish the most ferocious, angry man-eating Bull Moose in the world.

HOLD LITTLE HOPE FOR
HAWKER

LONDON, May 22—Nothing has been heard of Harry Hawker or Mackenzie Grieves who sailed from Newfoundland Sunday in the Sopwith plane in an attempt to fly across the Atlantic. The search for some trace is continuing. The only hope of friends is that they were picked up by a sailing vessel which does not carry wireless.

STOCK OPENINGS

NEW YORK, May 22—Prices were irregular at the stock market opening today with trading somewhat more lively than for the past few days. United States Steel opened at 102 3/8, up 3/8; American Car and Foundry 102 1/8, up 1/4; Anaconda 67 1/4, up 1/8; General Electric 163 7/8, off 1/8; Airline 47 1/2, up 1/2; Southern Pacific 108 3/8, off 1/8.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE
PASSED BY HOUSE
VOTE, 304 TO 89

WASHINGTON, May 21—With more to spare the House of Representatives today passed the resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution giving the vote to women. The vote was 304 to 89. It was the first Republican victory in the new congress. Two hundred and one members of that party voted for the resolution and only nineteen voted against it. On the Democratic side 101 members supported the resolution and seventy voted against it. The three other supporting votes came from an Independent, a prohibitionist and a non-partisan.

The easy victory of the Republican majority did not come as a great surprise although only fourteen months ago the vote on the same resolution was 274 to 136 and had the two-thirds necessary with only one vote to spare. The fact that President Wilson recommended suffrage for women in his message yesterday had practically nothing to do with the result in today's voting.

PARK ASSOCIATION
PREPARING FOR BIG
JULY 4 CELEBRATION

The Clearfield Park Association held a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. last evening for the purpose of completing their program for the big Fourth of July celebration they propose holding.

They have already arranged for motor cycle and other races, baseball games, band concerts, merry-go-round, Ferris wheel, and many carnival attractions. An effort is being made to secure a squadron of government airplanes for exhibition purposes and it is quite likely they will be here.

This celebration gives promise of being the biggest in this section in recent years and more details will be given the public from time to time as the plans mature.

Defining a word is the first step in knowledge. Some people use words all their lives without defining them. Such threatens to be the case with "bolshivism." One way of showing what a word is to show what it is not. "Bolshivism" is a Russian word; but bolshivism is not a Russian thing. It is not a disease communicable by germs, as some imagine. It is not new. Bolshivism lies at the bottom of every human heart. Surround it with the proper cultural conditions, and it will grow. It may take the form of proletarian government, as in Russia, or it may take some other ugly form. But ugly as it is, it is not as ugly as the conditions which nourish it. These conditions can be controlled. That is our business in America today.

TWENTY PER CENT
SALARY INCREASE FOR
TEACHERS FAVORED

HARRISBURG, May 21—Following a conference with a committee of educators from all parts of the state, which was attended by Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, the new state superintendent of public instruction, today, Governor Sproul said he hoped to see enacted before long legislation that would give the teachers of the state a substantial increase in salaries, averaging about 20 per cent. It all depends on the revenue, said the Governor, who said that the Woodruff bill would be the basis of the legislation and that the matter which was holding it up was the revenue.

"I think I shall be able to tell in a week what money we can appropriate. I want to see the districts share in the responsibility in meeting the increase, the state giving 10 per cent, and the districts 10, for instance," said the Governor.

Doctor Finegan discussed various phases of educational work with the teachers who met the governor, going into the problems of rural schools, on which he has had wide experience. He will have further meetings at which matters relative to development of the system will be considered.

CON ALLEN'S SHOW
IS COMING HERE

Postmaster Con Allen of DuBois, was in Clearfield today and arranged to bring his famous minstrel show over here to give a benefit performance for the Clearfield Hospital.

The entertainment will be given at the Driggs Theatre on Wednesday evening, May 28th, and will be under the auspices of the Junior Auxiliary of the hospital.

The minstrel company is made up of the best talent in the city of DuBois and gave two performances to crowded houses over there the past week. They give a highly creditable performance and should and no doubt will be greeted by a crowded house.

PITTSBURGH WELCOMES HEROES

PITTSBURGH, May 22—Seething with patriotism Pittsburgh today welcomed 1,400 heroes of the 107th Field Artillery, the 103rd Supply Train, the 103rd Field Signal Battalion, the Military Police Headquarters Company of the 28th Division and other scattered units of the division. A parade and reception were the features of the home coming. The artillery men came to Pittsburgh today from Camp Dix where they were demobilized. They comprise batteries A and F made up of Pittsburghers and Western Pennsylvanians. Immediately after the parade the veterans marched to the armory where they were dismissed and allowed to go to their homes without further formalities.

RELATIVES WILL LEARN HOW LOVED
ONES MADE SUPREME SACRIFICE

Relatives of the men who went to France, but did not return, are soon to know how they paid the supreme sacrifice.

The individual casualties suffered by each division in France, with the manner in which each man went heroically to his death, are now being compiled by the division adjutants. Instructions to obtain this data and forward it immediately to Washington have been issued by the war department to General Pershing, according to word received today.

As soon as the lists are received they will be made public.

Less than 4 per cent of the Americans who have died in France still remain upon the roster of unknown dead.

Under the care of the Quartermaster Corps Grave Registration Service the bodies of the soldiers are being gathered from their temporary resting places, where they were placed with a marker under shellfire or during the onrush of battle.

That less than 4 per cent of the bodies remain unidentified is due principally to the fact that they carried letters, photographs or papers in their clothing, in addition to their identification checks, which made identification comparatively easy.

INTERNAL TROUBLES IN SPAIN GROW
AS PROBLEMS REMAIN UNSOLVED

WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (United Press Staff Correspondent) but it has the disadvantage of piling up the debt and its terrible interest as time goes by.

PARIS, (By Mail)—News coming out of Spain is pessimistic. A general unrest hovers over the whole country, now manifesting itself in the form of a strike, again as a "separatist" movement and again as plainly revolutionary.

I have just finished reading an article in "L'Information" signed "Homen Christo," and the picture he holds up, if a true one, does not offer much encouragement as to Spain's immediate future.

"Each day," he declares, "it is announced that the crisis in Spain has come to an end. But the day after the situation appears to be again at high tension."

"It is perfectly evident that a social cataclysm menaces Spain. Popular agitators invoke the question of Catalonia, that of Morocco, or the high cost of living, or the claims of the working people. But the trouble is more serious than that; it is a trouble ancient and deep."

"For ten years past each succeeding government has been disinclined to stand up and face squarely the difficulties which they have been called upon to solve. In order to stay in office they have temporized, used various dodges and employed all kinds of dilatory measures, avoiding as long as possible any clash with public opinion. These politics is not without its value."

SUSQUEHANNA COLLEGE OF MUSIC COMMENCEMENT

The thirteenth annual commencement of the Susquehanna College of Music will be held in the college auditorium this evening at 8:30.

The undergraduates will be the entertainers and with the talent that the faculty has developed during the past year an evening of the best musical entertainment is assured. There is no charge for the evening and the public is cordially invited.

Text of President's Message

Washington, May 20.—For the first time in history a message from the president of the United States, called from Europe, was read to the congress today. It was as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Congress: I deeply regret my inability to be present at the opening of the extraordinary session of the congress. It still seems to me my duty to take part in the counsel of the peace conference and contribute what I can to the solution of the innumerable questions to whose settlement it has had to address itself; for they are questions which affect the peace of the whole world and from them, therefore, the United States cannot stand apart. I deemed it my duty to call the congress together at this time because it was not wise to postpone longer the provisions which must be made for the support of the government. Many of the appropriations which are absolutely necessary for the maintenance of the government and the fulfillment of its varied obligations for the fiscal year 1919-1920 have not yet been made; the end of the present fiscal year is at hand; and action upon these appropriations can no longer be prudently delayed. It is necessary, therefore, that I should immediately call your attention to this critical need. It is hardly necessary for me to urge that it may receive your prompt attention.

"I shall take the liberty of addressing you on my return on the subjects which have most engrossed our attention and the attention of the world during these anxious months, since the armistice of last November was signed, the international settlements which must form the subject matter of the present treaties of peace and of our national action in the immediate future. It would be premature to discuss them or to express a judgment about them before they are brought to their complete formulation by the agreements which are now being sought at the table of the conference. I shall hope to lay them before you in their many aspects so soon as arrangements have been reached.

Rights of the Worker.
"The question which stands at the front of all others in every country against the present great awakening is the question of labor; and perhaps I can speak of it with as great advantage while engrossed in the consideration of interests which affect all countries alike as I could at home and amidst the interests which naturally most affect my thought, because they are the interests of our own people.

"By the question of labor I do not mean the question of efficient industrial production, the question of how labor is to be obtained and made effective in the great process of sustaining populations and winning success against commercial and industrial rivalries. I mean that much greater and more vital question, how are the men and women who do the daily labor of the world to obtain progressive improvement in the conditions of their labor, to be made happier, and to be served better by the communities and the industries which their labor sustains and advances? How are they to be given their right advantage as citizens and human beings?

"We cannot go any further in our present direction. We have already gone too far. We cannot live our right life as a nation or achieve our proper success as an industrial community if capital and labor are to continue to be antagonistic instead of being partners. If they are to continue to distrust one another and continue how they can get the better of one another, or what perhaps amounts to the same thing, calculate by what form and degree of coercion they can manage to extort on the one hand work enough to make enterprise profitable, on the other justice and fair treatment enough to make life tolerable. That bad road has turned out a blind alley. It is no thoroughfare to real prosperity. We must find another, leading in another direction and to a very different destination. It must lead not merely to accommodation, but also to a genuine co-operation and partnership based upon a real community of interest and participation in control.

"There is now in fact a real community of interest between capital and labor, but it has never been made evident in action. It can be made operative and must be made operative on a new basis.

George Meeker has returned to his home in Sandy Ridge, after visiting his aunt, Mrs. John Short.

BUY YOUR SATURDAY'S GROCERIES AT WORKMAN'S

organization of industry. The genius of our business men and the sound, practical sense of our workers can certainly work such a partnership out when once they realize exactly what it is that they seek and sincerely adopt a common purpose with regard to it.

"Labor legislation," lies, of course, chiefly with the states; but the new spirit and method of organization which must be effected are not to be brought by legislation so much as by the common counsel and voluntary co-operation of capitalist, manager and workman. Legislation can go only a very little way in commanding what shall be done. The organization of industry is a matter of corporate and individual initiative and of practical business arrangement. Those who really desire a new relationship between capital and labor can readily find a way to bring it about; and perhaps federal legislation can help more than state legislation could.

Industrial Democratization.
"The object of all reform in this essential matter must be the genuine democratization of industry, based upon a full recognition of the right of those who work, in whatever rank, to participate in some organic way in every decision which directly affects their welfare or the part they are to play in industry. Some positive legislation is practicable. The congress has already shown the way to one reform which should be world-wide, by establishing the eight-hour day as the standard day in every field of labor over which it can exercise control. It has sought to find the way to prevent child labor and will, I hope and believe, presently find it. It has served the whole country by leading the way in developing the means of preserving and safeguarding life and health in dangerous industries. It can now help in the difficult task of giving a new form and spirit to industrial organization by co-ordinating the several agencies of conciliation and adjustment which have been brought into existence by the difficulties and mistaken policies of the present management of industry, and by setting up and developing new federal agencies of advice and information which may serve as a clearing house for the best experience and best thought on this great matter, upon which every thinking man must be aware that the future development of society directly depends. Agencies of international counsel and information are presently to be created in connection with the league of nations in this very field; but it is national action and the enlightened policy of individuals, corporations and societies within each nation that must bring about the actual reforms. The members of the committee on labor in the two houses will hardly need suggestions from me as to what means they shall seek to make the federal government the agent of the whole nation in putting out, and if need be, guiding the process of reorganization and reform.

Duty to Returning Soldiers.

"I am sure that it is not necessary for me to remind that there is one immediate and very practical question of labor that we should meet in the most liberal spirit. We must see to it that our returning soldiers are assisted in every practicable way to find the places for which they are fitted in the daily work of this country. This can be done by developing and maintaining upon an adequate scale the admirable organization created by the department of labor for placing men seeking work; and it can also be done, in at least one very great field, by creating new opportunities for individual enterprise. The secretary of the interior has pointed out the way by which returning soldiers may be helped to find and take up land in the hitherto undeveloped regions of the country which the federal government has already prepared or can readily prepare for cultivation and also on many of the cut-over or neglected areas which lie within the limits of the older states; and I once more take the liberty of recommending very urgently that his plans shall receive the immediate and substantial support of the congress.

"Peculiar and very stimulating conditions await our commerce and industrial enterprise in the immediate future. Unusual opportunities will present themselves to our merchants and producers in foreign markets, and large fields for profitable investment will be opened to our free capital. But it is not only of that that I am thinking; it is not chiefly of that that I am thinking. Many great industries prostrated by the war wait to be rehabilitated, in many parts of the world where what will be lacking is not brains or willing hands or organizing capacity or experienced skill, but machinery and raw materials and capital. I believe that our business men, our merchants, our manufacturers, and our capitalists will have the vision to see that prosperity in our part of the world ministers to prosperity everywhere; that there is in a very true sense a solidarity of interest throughout the world of enterprise, and that our dealings with the countries that have need of our products and our money will reach them to deem us more than ever friends whose necessities we seek in the right way to serve.

Future Commerce.
"Our new merchant ships, which have in some quarters been feared as destructive rivals, may prove helpful rivals, rather, and common servants

very much needed and welcome. Our great shipyards, new and old, will be so opened to the use of the world that they will prove immensely serviceable to every maritime people in restoring, much more rapidly than would otherwise have been possible, the tonnage wantonly destroyed in the war. I have only to suggest that there are many points at which we can facilitate American enterprise in foreign trade by opportune legislation and make it easy for American merchant ships where they will be welcomed as friends rather than as dreaded antagonists. America has a great and honorable service to perform in bringing the commercial and industrial undertakings of the world back to their old scope and swing again, and putting a solid structure of credit under them. Our legislation should be friendly to such plans and purposes.

"And credit and enterprise alike will be quickened by timely and helpful legislation with regard to taxation. I hope that the congress will find it possible to undertake an early reconsideration of federal taxation more simple and easy of administration and the taxes themselves as little burdensome as they can be made and yet suffice to support the government and meet all its obligations. The figures to which these obligations have arisen are very great indeed, but they are not so great as to make it difficult for the nation to meet them, and meet them, perhaps, in a single generation, by taxes which will neither crush nor discourage. They are not so great as they seem, not so great as the immense sums we have had to borrow, added to the immense sums we have had to raise by taxation, would seem to indicate; for a very large proportion of these sums were raised in order that they might be loaned to the governments with which we were associated in the war, and those loans will, of course, constitute assets, not liabilities and will not have to be taken care of by our tax-payers.

Equitable Taxation.
"The main thing we shall have to care for is that our taxation shall rest as lightly as possible on the productive resources of the country, that its rates shall be stable, and that it shall be constant in its revenue-yielding power. We have found the main sources from which it must be drawn. I take it for granted that its mainstays will henceforth be the income tax, the excess profits tax and the estate tax. All these can be so adjusted to yield constant and adequate returns and yet not constitute a too grievous burden on the taxpayer. A revision of the income tax has already been provided for by the act of 1918, but I think you will find that further changes can be made to advantage both in the rates of the tax and in the method of its collection. The excess profits tax need not long be maintained at the rates which were necessary while the enormous expense of the war had to be borne, but it should be made the basis of a permanent system which will reach undue profits without discouraging the enterprise and activity of our business men. The tax on inheritance, ought, no doubt, to be reconsidered in its rela-

DOCTOR SAYS ONE LUNG IS HEALED AND OTHER NEARLY SO

Urges patient to keep up the treatment that did the work.

"I had consumption of the lungs for six years. I had an outside operation in the open air nearly all the time. I used six raw eggs a day and about a gallon of milk. I had great many hemorrhages, and was not able to walk around the house a little.

"I began taking Milks Emulsion in June. I have now taken my eighteenth bottle and feel just as healthy. I had my doctor examine my lungs the other day, and he said that one of them is entirely healed up and the other one nearly so. I am now able to keep on using Milks Emulsion, which I intend to do. My original weight was 170 pounds. I have regained most of it, now weigh 180 pounds and feel almost as strong and good as I ever did. My only regret is that I didn't hear of Milks Emulsion six years ago." Grady Dees, Macon, Ga.

Whether Milks Emulsion would succeed as well for you as it did in the above case, is easy for you to find out. It is at least bound to benefit you, and it costs nothing to try it.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, does away with all need of pills and purgatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It works like magic on coughs and colds.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by

Helping Men To Buy Clothes

No man would knowingly spend his money for poor clothes but the determination to buy good clothes isn't all that's necessary—you must know what you are getting; whether the clothes are tailored right, whether the fabric is all wool and the style is good and the only way to be certain on all these points is to go to a merchant whose "word" and "clothes" you can depend upon.

BE SURE OF YOUR STORE

That's where we come in. We don't expect you to know all-wool fabrics from part cotton, to know whether the lining will wear; whether the seams are silk sewn; even an expert will fall down on these points. You don't have to worry about any of these points when you come here. We help you to buy right by having the best clothes that are to be had.

MAY RAIN RECORD A HUMMER.

According to the records kept by Harry P. Bridge Sr., who is the local representative of the Pennsylvania Water Survey Bureau, May has been a damp month hereabouts. Mr. Bridge makes careful record of the precipitation each day and this record shows that thus far there has been more rainfall during May than the total for the preceding four months of the year. Last night's drenching rains brought the total for the month up to the unprecedented figures of 7.68 inches.

The total for January of this year was 2.27 inches; February 2.02 inches; March 2.91 inches; April 2.31 inches. Thus far in the month it has rained on fourteen different days.

DO YOU RECALL BILLY WHITLA

Mrs. Helen Boyle who was sentenced to the Western Penitentiary May 10 1909, for complicity in the kidnapping of Billy Whitla, of Sharon, has been recommended for parole under the act of Assembly of 1913. Her case will be given consideration by the Board of Pardons at Harrisburg during the coming summer.

LEMON JUICE

FOR FRECKLES

Girls! Make beauty lotion for a few cents—Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quart pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and rosy white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless and never irritates.

BUZZING BEES BUTT INTO HARMONY OF NATIONALITIES

The people living over in the southwestern end of the county sure are finicky or at least one would gather that impression from the statements filed in many of the cases which get into our courts from that section. The latest out of the ordinary case, was fathered in our equity courts by Pentz & Pentz representing Mike Magelinski, who objects to the "busy bees" of his neighbors, Frances and Joseph Kweeder.

The Kweeders possessed several hives of bees and when the glaucous springtime arrived those bees simply "swarmed" all over the neighborhood and when they decided to halt and hold a council of war, they halted regardless of where or when or who or why.

Magelinski's place was the handiest to the hives and the bees appeared to just dote on the surroundings and accordingly the busy bees were busy buzzing about at all times. Everything went along swimmingly until last year when Magelinski purchased a couple of colonies of Italian bees. Then the age-long Balkan disputes immediately got into action away over in Pennsylvania. Magelinski and all the little Magelinskis are of Austrian extraction and when those Italian bees got a whiff of the ancient and traditional enemy, you should have been present.

Talk about the charge of the Light Brigade, that cannon stuff was entirely backed off the dump by what occurred in that former peaceful backyard along the banks of the classic, but turbulent Sandy.

Everytime a Magelinski appeared out doors a shower of bees lit on him. There were bees on the right, left, in front, behind, over and under him, while several even climbed the old mans left hand trouser leg on one occasion. That was the last straw.

The court's aid was invoked and Judge Bell made an order on Monday last which provided that the Kweeders "be restrained from the further keeping of bees, Italian or otherwise, on their premises and be compelled to remove the said bees from the neighborhood and vicinity of the Magelinski property." forthwith.

LETTER FROM URBAN LEIGEY

Mr. and Mrs. John Leigey of Nichols street, are in receipt of a very interesting letter from their son Wagner Urban F. Leigey, who is in the motor ambulance service with the A. E. F. His letter is dated St. Nazaire, France, May 4th. They are evidently having real May weather over there, because he says it had been raining a week straight endways. He hopes the present rainy spell stops short of the one they had recently gone through which was just four months long.

He has been watching the French farm and says it is some job. They use ox teams and it takes them a week to plow an acre. When they do use horses they hitch one ahead of the other instead of side by side as we do here in God's country. He expects to get out of France about June first.

Some facts about prices addressed to farmers

A GOOD many people when they buy things make the mistake of thinking a price really means something taken by itself.

You know how foolish it is to buy simply because something is low priced; yet quoting low prices attracts a lot of people who don't know much about the real value of merchandise. They get a thing simply because they think it's low priced—without any regard for the quality.

We have Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes here priced at $35 to $60; anywhere else in town maybe you can buy them for less, so it's quite ridiculous for us to expect you to come to us for clothes just because of a price; anybody can match prices.

We want you to come because of the spirit of service that we have; because your money is less important to us than satisfaction; because whatever price you pay we're going to see that you get more per dollar here than anywhere else.

We want you to come for Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; because they are well made and guaranteed to satisfy you or your money back.

Women's Spring Footwear

Presenting the Season's Newest Styles

These will be very interesting days in our Shoe department when the very latest footwear models for Spring will be presented to your attention.

Because it is the first PEACE SPRING in five years, the new season brings a big variety of footwear in styles approved by Fashion. Toes are narrow and while the French heel is favored, there is a tendency also of the low heel as well as other modification to appear on many of the smartest models. Leathers include beautiful kidskin, patent leathers and others which women favor so much.

Girls' and Misses' Shoes In New Spring Styles

The matter of correct and comfortable footwear for girls and misses have been given special attention by us, and we have learned to know their particular needs and to properly fill them. Whether for dress or general wear you can always find enough styles here, at very moderate prices. Leathers are of the best qualities and models are correct in every respect.

1898 WAR VETERANS' TEXT OF PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The meeting of Spanish-American War Veterans held in the Council room last evening was attended by about twenty vets who spent some time discussing the details of the coming reunion of the old Fifth Regiment.

The matter of the selection of a date for the reunion was the principal topic and it was the general opinion that the members of the local committee should join with the Park Association in the July 4th week celebration and hold their meeting in conjunction with other big time.

President Troxell appointed Comrades Walter Welch, J. Fred Weaver and Frank D. Sonders a committee to wait upon Mayor Chase and learn from him views regarding the home coming reception for leafy county soldiers with a view to combining with the townspeople at that time and in that movement.

Action is looked for at once, and it is highly possible that several days of the week of July 4th will be given over to the old Fifth Regiment reunion the soldiers reception, and 4th celebration.

MEMORIAL DAY ARRANGEMENTS

The Memorial Day Committee is working hard on the arrangements for the proper observance of this important occasion.

The soldiers of the three wars, the fraternal organizations and the firemen are requested to assist in making the day what it should be in Clearfield.

One of the commonest of all street superstitions, is that there is tremendous good fortune ahead of anyone who meets a pitchfork horse in the street. Where the idea came from nobody really knows, but it exists in all parts of the world.

tion to the fiscal systems of the several states, but it certainly ought to remain a permanent part of the fiscal system of the federal government also. "Many of the minor taxes provided for in the revenue legislation of 1917 and 1918, though no doubt made necessary by the pressing necessities of the war time, can hardly find sufficient justification under the easier circumstances of peace, and can now happily be got rid of. Among these, I hope you will agree, are the excises upon various manufactures and the taxes upon retail sales. They are unequal in the incidence on different industries and on different individuals. Their collection is difficult and expensive. Those which are levied upon articles sold at retail are largely evaded by the readjustment of retail prices. On the other hand, I should assume that it is expedient to maintain a considerable range of indirect taxes; and the fact that alcoholic liquors will presently no longer afford a source of revenue by taxation makes it the more necessary that the field should be carefully resurveyed in order that equivalent sources of revenue may be found which it will be legitimate, and not burdensome, to draw upon. But you have at hand in the treasury department many experts who can advise you upon the matters much better than I can. I can only suggest the lines of a permanent and workable system, and the placing of the taxes where they will least hamper the life of the people.

"There is, fortunately, no occasion for undertaking the immediate future, any general revision of our system of import duties. No serious danger of foreign competition now threatens American industries. Our country has emerged from the war less disturbed and less weakened than any of the European countries which are our competitors in manufacture. So far from there being any danger or need of accentuated foreign competition, it is likely that the conditions of the next few years will greatly facilitate the marketing of American manufactures abroad. Least of all should we depart from the policy adopted in the tariff act of 1913, of permitting the free entry into the United States of the raw materials needed to supplement and enrich our own abundant supplies.

Tariff Revision.

"Nevertheless, there are parts of our tariff system which need prompt attention. The experiences of the war have made it plain that in some cases too great reliance on foreign supply is dangerous, and that in determining certain parts of our tariff policy domestic considerations must be borne in mind which are political as well as economic. Among the industries to which special consideration should be given is that of the manufacture of dyestuffs and related chemicals. Our complete dependence upon German supplies before the war made the incursion of trade a cause of exceptional economic disturbance. The close relation between the manufacturer of dyestuffs, on the one hand, and of explosives and poisonous gases, on the other, moreover, has given the industry an exceptional significance and value. Although the United States will gladly and unhesitatingly join in the progress of international disarmament, it will, nevertheless, be a policy of obvious prudence to make certain of the successful maintenance of many strong and well-equipped chemical plants. The German chemical industry, with which we will be brought into competition, was and may well be again, a thoroughly knit monopoly capable of exercising competition of a particularly insidious and dangerous kind.

"The United States should, moreover, have the means of properly protecting itself whenever our trade is discriminated against by foreign nations, in order that we may be assured of that equality of treatment which we hope to accord and to promote the world over. Our tariff laws as they now stand provide no means of retribution in case other governments should enact legislation unequal in its bearing on our products as compared with the products of other countries. Though we are as far as possible from desiring to enter upon any course of retaliation, we must frankly face the fact that hostile legislation by other nations is not beyond the range of possibility, and that it may have to be met by counter-legislation. This subject has, fortunately, been exhaustively investigated by the United States tariff commission. A recent report of that commission makes very clear that we lack and that we ought to have the instruments necessary for the assurance of equal and equitable treatment. The attention of the congress has been called to this matter on past occasions, and the measures which are now recommended by the tariff commission are substantially the same that have been suggested by previous administrations. I recommend that his phase of the tariff question receive the early attention of the congress.

"Will you not permit me, turning from these matters, to speak once more, and very earnestly, of the proposed amendment to the constitution which would extend the suffrage to women and which passed the house of representatives at the last session of congress? It seems to me that every consideration of justice and of public advantage calls for the immediate adoption of that amendment and its submission forthwith to the legislatures of the several states. Throughout all the world this long delayed extension of the suffrage is looked for; in the United States longer, I believe than anywhere else, the necessity for it, and the immense advantage of it to the national life, has been urged and debated, by women and men who saw the need for it and urged the policy of it when it required steadfast courage to be so much beforehand with the common conviction; and I, for one, covet for our country the distinction of being among the first to act in a great reform.

THREE GIVEN MEAL TICKET GOOD ONLY AT WESTERN "PEN."

The Clearfield County Colony in the Western Penitentiary at Pittsburgh will receive an additional three members following pressing invitations extended by Judge Bell in criminal court yesterday, when at the request of District Attorney Arnold, he insisted upon three malefactors convicted at the regular quarter sessions tarrying at this famous resort as the guests of Clearfield county taxpayers for periods ranging from four and one half years down to 2 years each.

Ralph Rhin, the Woodland negro, who was convicted of an attempt to ravish a four year old white child, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00, the costs of prosecution, and undergo imprisonment in the penitentiary for a period of not more than five nor less than four and one-half years, the extreme limit for his crime.

John McAvoy was given from three to four years. William Brennan was sentenced to not less than two nor more than four years. McAvoy and Brennan were convicted of robbing Martin Montgomery at DuBois.

The men found Montgomery in an intoxicated condition and after imperious officers and 'arresting' him succeeded in getting away with his 'roll'.

William Hall, a young colored man from Curwensville who recently slashed a Curwensville white man during an altercation at a local hotel, was sentenced to Huntingdon reformatory.

Daisey DeWitt, Jr., a bad boy from Irvonia, who had entered a plea of guilty to larceny was sent to Glenn Mills.

DROP IN CHOCOLATES

There were several "drops in chocolate" or several "chocolates" dropped down in the Fourth ward yesterday afternoon when four females and one male member of the African colony down there engaged in a strenuous battle royal. The affair started between two women and when the mother and aunt of one of the participants horned in on the fray the other woman's husband appeared on the scene. He proved equal to the occasion and as the result of a few left and right hand jolts to the jaw soon had the three enemy scrappers piled along the curb like cold wood, or more properly speaking, pine knots after the fire had swept the woods. It was some task too, because the "ladies" were seasoned scrappers and have been returned winners in many battles among the buff residents down that way.

The local and state police gathered in the scrappers and an armistice was declared before Squire Chorprenning who was shy on fourteen points but countered by having the fighters dig up fourteen "bones."

THE FIRST SNAKE STORY.

A. W. Leonardson and Henry G. Dill came in from Roberts Run the last of the week with the first snake story of the 1919 season. While engaged in the pleasant pastime of yanking speckled beauties from the rifles and limpid pools of Roberts Run, their right of way was disputed by a huge yellow rattler, which the fishermen dispatched after considerable of a battle.

The monster measured forty-six inches in length and packed a string of eleven "bells."

Quit Meat When Kidneys Bother

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Troubles You.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and eat about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Stop Itching Skin

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and skin irritation almost instantly and that cleanses and soothes the skin.
Ask any druggist for a 35c or $1 bottle of Zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that irritations, pimples, blackheads, eczema, blotches, ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear. A little Zemo, the penetrating, satisfying liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions, makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy.

LIEUTENANT BERYL READ

Lieut. Beryl Read, president of C. H. S. Class of 1917, and a Clearfield county boy who earned a commission while in France, with the A. E. F., in a letter to his mother, Mrs. Perry Read, of Kerrmoor, written at Le Mans, France, on April 30th last, says he is one of the Assistant Range officers in the big A. E. F. rifle, pistol and musketry competition, May 5 to 24.

He traveled from Gondcourt to Le Mans in a special American troop train which made at least five miles an hour. Tours is the nicest town he visited while in France. In describing a visit through Tours, he tells of seeing the cathedral and travelling up the right tower a circling staircase of three hundred steps. He visited the art gallery and saw a picture valued at one million francs, but said he would much rather have had the money, as he was not much on pictures. Lt. Read has been all over France and has had some wonderful experiences and like the rest of the boys, prefers to hustle back to Clearfield county.

TITANIC SURVIVOR TREATS AUTOBUMP AS SORT OF JOKE

William Borag was struck by a car driven by a woman on Second street, near the Parochial school early yesterday noon. He was hurried to the Clearfield hospital where it was found that he was only slightly hurt.

Young Borag never minded a little thing like being knocked down and run over by a flivver such little trifles cause him no concern whatever. He with his brother were passengers on the ill-fated Titanic when she went down off the coast of New Foundland several years ago and since they got by that awful happening, an accident such as this one they regard as all in the game.

Chester Dunlap, a 10 year old Fifth street lad, was pretty severely bumped yesterday afternoon about 3:30 when he ran right into an automobile driven by Jesse Mann and was hurt several feet, alighting on the brick street on his head and shoulders. The accident occurred at the corner of Market and Third streets. The boy started to run across the street without any regard to passing vehicles and ran right into the car, the rear mud guard striking him and knocking him down. Witnesses of the accident picked the lad up and Mr. Mann hurried him to Dr. Yeaneys office in his car, where it was found that aside from a shaking up he was uninjured.

If Ilyria is to be the name chosen by the Jugo-Slavs as that of their country, another of Shakespeare's states besides Bohemia will take its place in the European family of nations. The citizens of Ilyria, of Shakespeare's Ilyria, are very well known in literature. Every one knows Viola and Malvolio, to say nothing of the famous Sir Toby Belch. Ilyria was a Roman denomination, and the name was revived only in the first years of the Nineteenth century, for the convenience of sweeping into one bag all those territories which became the appanage of the Austrian crown.

Two items in the news are seen to have a close connection, when placed side by side. One points to a recrudescence of interest in the raising of fruit in America. The other reports that in Belgium alone 170,000 acres of fruit orchards have been ruined, and that in France 500,000 fruit trees were destroyed by gunfire and by the Germans. It is evident that American orchardists will be called upon to fill a great void in the European fruit market, and that they are getting ready to grasp the opportunity.

Shopkeepers in Coblentz who have been selling iron crosses with the American flag pinned to the ribbons have been sent to jail, and all have been warned that any disrespect to the American colors will be punished. American tolerance, which they do not understand in a conqueror, has made them forget the Americans are their masters.

Hot Water The Best Liver And Bowel Medicine

Says Glass of Hot Water Before
Breakfast Washes Poisons
From System.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, could obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

BIG 4 CONSIDER SAAR PROTEST

PARIS, May 21—The German delegation has been granted an extension of seven days, or until May 29, in which to reply in full to the peace terms, according to an official announcement.

Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, head of the German delegation, in asking an extension of time stated further notes were being prepared, and that it would be impossible to complete them by 1 p. m. Thursday when the time limit is up. He said that Germans desired more time to study a number of questions in the treaty, which they had not yet had an opportunity to examine.

By FRED S. FERGUSON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, May 22—The German peace delegates will make an eleventh hour bluff to break off negotiations just to test the Allies' determination according to belief expressed in official French circles today.

Once the enemy sees the Allies mean business—realize that the economic blockade will be tightened and sees the Allied army spring to attention ready to march into Germany—either the present or substitute delegates will sign "under protest," is the way the French have figured it out.

The "big four" this morning took up the German protest of conditions under which the French will obtain favorable concessions in the Saar valley. This serves as a break in the distribution of mandates which have occupied the attention of the "big four" for several days. No enthusiasm is being registered by American delegates over acceptance of the mandatory over Constantinople under the present plans.

Schiedemann Preaches Protest

By Carl D. Groat

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, May 21 (Delayed)—One hundred thousand Independent Socialists today staged a demonstration in the Lustgarten in favor of an immediate peace. They bore numerous red flags and banners with the inscription "we want only peace, bread and work." After they had been addressed by several speakers the Independent Socialists marched to the Wilhelmplatz where 25,000 Majority Socialists were holding a demonstration against the treaty. Before the appearance of the Independent Socialists Chancellor Schiedemann addressed the crowd declaring that "protest is Germany's only weapon."

Pact Not Wholly Satisfying to Wilson

By Lowell Mellett

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

(Copyright 1919 by the United Press)

PARIS May 22—That President Wilson himself is not satisfied with the German peace treaty was the answer his friends made today to the accumulating objections of many of the American commissioners which came to a head this week through the tentative resignation of nine of the members.

The President, his friends say, believes the treaty is the best it is possible to obtain considering all the conditions and come as near as possible to representing the principles through out during the past six wear months. Friends of the President said that when the whole story of the conference is told it will be understood why the treaty contains just what it does and why there are certain omissions.

BOALSBURG COMPANY DISCHARGED TODAY

CAMP DIX, N. J., May 22—More than 1,200 members of the 28th division are scheduled to be discharged here today. Included in the list are the 107th Machine Gun Battalion, Co. F of the 109th Inf. and a detachment of 60 men of the 108th Machine Gun Battalion. Members of the 110th Inf. wore smiles today in anticipation of their discharge scheduled for today. A large portion of the 109th Inf. departed yesterday.

METHODIST CENTENARY SUCCEEDING

PITTSBURGH, May 22—One hundred and sixty churches of the Pittsburgh area comprising conferences in Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia reported today that they had "gone over the top" for the Methodist Centenary fund making a gain of half a million in the area within 24 hours. Allegheny county churches reported a total of $1,184,500.026 pledged and churches of the entire area reported $4,516,265 pledged.

LOCAL TALENT MIGHT
WEEK'S CARNIVAL

According to 'The Billboard' a theatrical magazine, Spencer's Celebrated Shows which are billed to appear here next week under the auspices of the Moose are making a herculean effort to assemble a great aggregation of amusements by the time they arrive here. It is not known of what of what the Spencer Shows consist, at this time and just what attractions they will have to offer when they land here, depends probably on what success they have in their advertising campaign for attractions. A large heavily displayed want ad in The Billboard states as follows:

SPENCER'S CELEBRATED SHOWS
WANT

Owing to disappointment, ten-in-one show, or will furnish complete equipment to experienced man who can manage and frame same. Want uniformed band, eight pieces, or man to organize same. Wire quick. Want fat girl for swell Platform Show. Want Midget to feature. Can still place a few concessions, low flat rental; Knife Rack, Cut Flowers, Poultry, Palmistry, and Shooting Gallery. Want promoter who can step some. The advertisement goes on to state that the show will play Clearfield, the week of the 26th.

We reproduce this advertisement for the purpose of showing that the Spencer Shows are doing all in their power to assemble a great array of attractions for the Hillsdale exhibition, and for the further purpose of assisting them to get this talent they so much desire. Mr. H. L. Davis, the bond broker of DuBois, testifies to the effectiveness of The Progress as an advertising medium, and we believe that by reprinting this advertisement the carnival will or may be able to get the talent they desire right in this community. For instance, the Ten-in-One aggregation could be provided by the versatile and able members of the 'Mikado' company. Then we have two or three ten man bands in this community who might be induced to go on the carnival circuit. When we broach the Fat Girl subject, we must be rather guarded in our statements but old Clearfield no doubt can produce the goods. As to the Midget we have no one to refer to at the present, but those interested can mail their applications to The Progress and they will be handed over to the proper persons in confidence. We have several who will buy concessions. Promoter Katzmans will fill the bill for the promoter who can step some. He put Boardman on the map. And we feel sure that Clearfield can furnish the most ferocious, angry man-eating Bull Moose in the world.

LONDON, May 22—Nothing has been heard of Harry Hawker or Mackenzie Grieves who sailed from Newfoundland Sunday in the Sopwith plane in an attempt to fly across the Atlantic. The search for some trace is continuing. The only hope of friends is that they were picked up by a sailing vessel which does not carry wireless.

STOCK OPENINGS

NEW YORK, May 22—Prices were irregular at the stock market opening today with trading somewhat more lively than for the past few days. United States Steel opened at 102 3/8, up 3/8; American Car and Foundry 102 1/8, up 1/4; Anaconda 67 1/4, up 1/8; General Electric 163 7/8, off 1/8; Airline 47 1/2, up 1/2; Southern Pacific 108 3/8, off 1/8.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE
PASSED BY HOUSE
VOTE, 304 TO 89

WASHINGTON, May 21—With more to spare the House of Representatives today passed the resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution giving the vote to women. The vote was 304 to 89. It was the first Republican victory in the new congress. Two hundred and one members of that party voted for the resolution and only nineteen voted against it. On the Democratic side 101 members supported the resolution and seventy voted against it. The three other supporting votes came from an Independent, a prohibitionist and a non-partisan.

The easy victory of the Republican majority did not come as a great surprise although only fourteen months ago the vote on the same resolution was 274 to 136 and had the two-thirds necessary with only one vote to spare. The fact that President Wilson recommended suffrage for women in his message yesterday had practically nothing to do with the result in today's voting.

PARK ASSOCIATION
PREPARING FOR BIG
JULY 4 CELEBRATION

The Clearfield Park Association held a meeting at the Y. M. C. A. last evening for the purpose of completing their program for the big Fourth of July celebration they propose holding.

They have already arranged for motor cycle and other races, baseball games, band concerts, merry-go-round, Ferris wheel, and many carnival attractions. An effort is being made to secure a squadron of government airplanes for exhibition purposes and it is quite likely they will be here.

This celebration gives promise of being the biggest in this section in recent years and more details will be given the public from time to time as the plans mature.

Defining a word is the first step in knowledge. Some people use words all their lives without defining them. Such threatens to be the case with "bolshivism." One way of showing what a word is to show what it is not. "Bolshivism" is a Russian word; but bolshivism is not a Russian thing. It is not a disease communicable by germs, as some imagine. It is not new. Bolshivism lies at the bottom of every human heart. Surround it with the proper cultural conditions, and it will grow. It may take the form of proletarian government, as in Russia, or it may take some other ugly form. But ugly as it is, it is not as ugly as the conditions which nourish it. These conditions can be controlled. That is our business in America today.

TWENTY PER CENT
SALARY INCREASE FOR
TEACHERS FAVORED

HARRISBURG, May 21—Following a conference with a committee of educators from all parts of the state, which was attended by Dr. Thomas E. Finegan, the new state superintendent of public instruction, today, Governor Sproul said he hoped to see enacted before long legislation that would give the teachers of the state a substantial increase in salaries, averaging about 20 per cent. It all depends on the revenue, said the Governor, who said that the Woodruff bill would be the basis of the legislation and that the matter which was holding it up was the revenue.

"I think I shall be able to tell in a week what money we can appropriate. I want to see the districts share in the responsibility in meeting the increase, the state giving 10 per cent. and the districts 10, for instance," said the Governor.

Doctor Finegan discussed various phases of educational work with the teachers who met the governor, going into the problems of rural schools, on which he has had wide experience. He will have further meetings at which matters relative to development of the system will be considered.

CON ALLEN'S SHOW
IS COMING HERE

Postmaster Con Allen of DuBois, was in Clearfield today and arranged to bring his famous minstrel show over here to give a benefit performance for the Clearfield Hospital.

The entertainment will be given at the Driggs Theatre on Wednesday evening, May 28th, and will be under the auspices of the Junior Auxiliary of the hospital.

The minstrel company is made up of the best talent in the city of DuBois and gave two performances to crowded houses over there the past week. They give a highly creditable performance and should and no doubt will be greeted by a crowded house.

PITTSBURGH WELCOMES HEROES

PITTSBURGH, May 22—Seething with patriotism Pittsburgh today welcomed 1,400 heroes of the 107th Field Artillery, the 103rd Supply Train, the 103rd Field Signal Battalion, the Military Police Headquarters Company of the 28th Division and other scattered units of the division. A parade and reception were the features of the home coming. The artillery men came to Pittsburgh today from Camp Dix where they were demobilized. They comprise batteries A and F made up of Pittsburghers and Western Pennsylvanians. Immediately after the parade the veterans marched to the armory where they were dismissed and allowed to go to their homes without further formalities.

RELATIVES WILL LEARN HOW LOVED

Relatives of the men who went to France, but did not return, are soon to know how they paid the supreme sacrifice.

The individual casualties suffered by each division in France, with the manner in which each man went heroically to his death, are now being compiled by the division adjutants. Instructions to obtain this data and forward it immediately to Washington have been issued by the war department to General Pershing, according to word received today.

As soon as the lists are received they will be made public.

Less than 4 per cent. of the Americans who have died in France still remain upon the roster of unknown dead.

Under the care of the Quartermaster Corps Grave Registration Service the bodies of the soldiers are being gathered from their temporary resting places, where they were placed with a marker under shellfire or during the onrush of battle.

That less than 4 per cent. of the bodies remain unidentified is due principally to the fact that they carried letters, photographs or papers in their clothing, in addition to their identification checks, which made identification comparatively easy.

INTERNAL TROUBLES IN SPAIN GROW
AS PROBLEMS REMAIN UNSOLVED

WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS (United Press Staff Correspondent) but it has the disadvantage of piling up the debt and its terrible interest as time goes by.

PARIS, (By Mail)—News coming out of Spain is pessimistic. A general unrest hovers over the whole country, now manifesting itself in the form of a strike, again as a "separatist" movement and again as plainly revolutionary.

I have just finished reading an article in "L'Information" signed "Homen Christo," and the picture he holds up, if a true one, does not offer much encouragement as to Spain's immediate future.

"Each day," he declares, "it is announced that the crisis in Spain has come to an end. But the day after the situation appears to be again at high tension."

"It is perfectly evident that a social cataclysm menaces Spain. Popular agitators invoke the question of Catalonia, that of Morocco, or the high cost of living, or the claims of the working people. But the trouble is more serious than that; it is a trouble ancient and deep."

"For ten years past each succeeding government has been disinclined to stand up and face squarely the difficulties which they have been called upon to solve. In order to stay in office they have temporized, used various dodges and employed all kinds of dilatory measures, avoiding as long as possible any clash with public opinion. These politics is not without its value."

Text of President's Message

Washington, May 20.—For the first time in history a message from the president of the United States, called from Europe, was read to the congress today. It was as follows:

"Gentlemen of the Congress: I deeply regret my inability to be present at the opening of the extraordinary session of the congress. It still seems to me my duty to take part in the counsel of the peace conference and contribute what I can to the solution of the innumerable questions to whose settlement it has had to address itself; for they are questions which affect the peace of the whole world and from them, therefore, the United States cannot stand apart. I deemed it my duty to call the congress together at this time because it was not wise to postpone longer the provisions which must be made for the support of the government. Many of the appropriations which are absolutely necessary for the maintenance of the government and the fulfillment of its varied obligations for the fiscal year 1919-1920 have not yet been made; the end of the present fiscal year is at hand; and action upon these appropriations can no longer be prudently delayed. It is necessary, therefore, that I should immediately call your attention to this critical need. It is hardly necessary for me to urge that it may receive your prompt attention.

"I shall take the liberty of addressing you on my return on the subjects which have most engrossed our attention and the attention of the world during these anxious months, since the armistice of last November was signed, the international settlements which must form the subject matter of the present treaties of peace and of our national action in the immediate future. It would be premature to discuss them or to express a judgment about them before they are brought to their complete formulation by the agreements which are now being sought at the table of the conference. I shall hope to lay them before you in their many aspects so soon as arrangements have been reached.

Rights of the Worker.
"The question which stands at the front of all others in every country against the present great awakening is the question of labor; and perhaps I can speak of it with as great advantage while engrossed in the consideration of interests which affect all countries alike as I could at home and amidst the interests which naturally most affect my thought, because they are the interests of our own people.

"By the question of labor I do not mean the question of efficient industrial production, the question of how labor is to be obtained and made effective in the great process of sustaining populations and winning success amidst commercial and industrial rivalries. I mean that much greater and more vital question, how are the men and women who do the daily labor of the world to obtain progressive improvement in the conditions of their labor, to be made happier, and to be served better by the communities and the industries which their labor sustains and advances? How are they to be given their right advantage as citizens and human beings?

"We cannot go any further in our present direction. We have already gone too far. We cannot live our right life as a nation or achieve our proper success as an industrial community if capital and labor are to continue to be antagonistic instead of being partners. If they are to continue to distrust one another and continue how they can get the better of one another, or what perhaps amounts to the same thing, calculate by what form and degree of coercion they can manage to extort on the one hand work enough to make enterprise profitable, on the other justice and fair treatment enough to make life tolerable. That bad road has turned out a blind alley. It is no thoroughfare to real prosperity. We must find another, leading in another direction and to a very different destination. It must lead not merely to accommodation, but also to a genuine co-operation and partnership based upon a real community of interest and participation in control.

"There is now in fact a real community of interest between capital and labor, but it has never been made evident in action. It can be made operative and must be made operative on a new basis.

organization of industry. The genius of our business men and the sound, practical sense of our workers can certainly work such a partnership out when once they realize exactly what it is that they seek and sincerely adopt a common purpose with regard to it.

"Labor legislation" lies, of course, chiefly with the states; but the new spirit and method of organization which must be effected are not to be brought by legislation so much as by the common counsel and voluntary co-operation of capitalist, manager and workman. Legislation can go only a very little way in commanding what shall be done. The organization of industry is a matter of corporate and individual initiative and of practical business arrangement. Those who really desire a new relationship between capital and labor can readily find a way to bring it about; and perhaps federal legislation can help more than state legislation could.

Industrial Democratization.
"The object of all reform in this essential matter must be the genuine democratization of industry, based upon a full recognition of the right of those who work, in whatever rank, to participate in some organic way in every decision which directly affects their welfare or the part they are to play in industry. Some positive legislation is practicable. The congress has already shown the way to one reform which should be world-wide, by establishing the eight-hour day as the standard day in every field of labor over which it can exercise control. It has sought to find the way to prevent child labor and will, I hope and believe, presently find it. It has served the whole country by leading the way in developing the means of preserving and safeguarding life and health in dangerous industries. It can now help in the difficult task of giving a new form and spirit to industrial organization by co-ordinating the several agencies of conciliation and adjustment which have been brought into existence by the difficulties and mistaken policies of the present management of industry, and by setting up and developing new federal agencies of advice and information which may serve as a clearing house for the best experience and best thought on this great matter, upon which every thinking man must be aware that the future development of society directly depends. Agencies of international counsel and information are presently to be created in connection with the league of nations in this very field; but it is national action and the enlightened policy of individuals, corporations and societies within each nation that must bring about the actual reforms. The members of the committee on labor in the two houses will hardly need suggestions from me as to what means they shall seek to make the federal government the agent of the whole nation in putting out, and if need be, guiding the process of reorganization and reform.

Duty to Returning Soldiers.

"I am sure that it is not necessary for me to remind that there is one immediate and very practical question of labor that we should meet in the most liberal spirit. We must see to it that our returning soldiers are assisted in every practicable way to find the places for which they are fitted in the daily work of this country. This can be done by developing and maintaining upon an adequate scale the admirable organization created by the department of labor for placing men seeking work; and it can also be done, in at least one very great field, by creating new opportunities for individual enterprise. The secretary of the interior has pointed out the way by which returning soldiers may be helped to find and take up land in the hitherto undeveloped regions of the country which the federal government has already prepared or can readily prepare for cultivation and also on many of the cut-over or neglected areas which lie within the limits of the older states; and I once more take the liberty of recommending very urgently that his plans shall receive the immediate and substantial support of the congress.

"Peculiar and very stimulating conditions await our commerce and industrial enterprise in the immediate future. Unusual opportunities will present themselves to our merchants and producers in foreign markets, and large fields for profitable investment will be opened to our free capital. But it is not only of that that I am thinking; it is not chiefly of that that I am thinking. Many great industries prostrated by the war wait to be rehabilitated, in many parts of the world where what will be lacking is not brains or willing hands or organizing capacity or experienced skill, but machinery and raw materials and capital. I believe that our business men, our merchants, our manufacturers, and our capitalists will have the vision to see that prosperity in our part of the world ministers to prosperity everywhere; that there is in a very true sense a solidarity of interest throughout the world of enterprise, and that our dealings with the countries that have need of our products and our money will reach them to deem us more than ever friends whose necessities we seek in the right way to serve.

Future Commerce.

"Our new merchant ships, which have in some quarters been feared as destructive rivals, may prove helpful rivals, rather, and common servants

very much needed and welcome. Our great shipyards, new and old, will be so opened to the use of the world that they will prove immensely serviceable to every maritime people in restoring, much more rapidly than would otherwise have been possible, the tonnage wantonly destroyed in the war. I have only to suggest that there are many points at which we can facilitate American enterprise in foreign trade by opportune legislation and make it easy for American merchant ships where they will be welcomed as friends rather than as dreaded antagonists. America has a great and honorable service to perform in bringing the commercial and industrial undertakings of the world back to their old scope and swing again, and putting a solid structure of credit under them. Our legislation should be friendly to such plans and purposes.

"And credit and enterprise alike will be quickened by timely and helpful legislation with regard to taxation. I hope that the congress will find it possible to undertake an early reconsideration of federal taxation more simple and easy of administration and the taxes themselves as little burdensome as they can be made and yet suffice to support the government and meet all its obligations. The figures to which these obligations have arisen are very great indeed, but they are not so great as to make it difficult for the nation to meet them, and meet them, perhaps, in a single generation, by taxes which will neither crush nor discourage. They are not so great as they seem, not so great as the immense sums we have had to borrow, added to the immense sums we have had to raise by taxation, would seem to indicate; for a very large proportion of these sums were raised in order that they might be loaned to the governments with which we were associated in the war, and those loans will, of course, constitute assets, not liabilities and will not have to be taken care of by our tax-payers.

Equitable Taxation.
"The main thing we shall have to care for is that our taxation shall rest as lightly as possible on the productive resources of the country, that its rates shall be stable, and that it shall be constant in its revenue-yielding power. We have found the main sources from which it must be drawn. I take it for granted that its mainstays will henceforth be the income tax, the excess profits tax and the estate tax. All these can be so adjusted to yield constant and adequate returns and yet not constitute a too grievous burden on the taxpayer. A revision of the income tax has already been provided for by the act of 1918, but I think you will find that further changes can be made to advantage both in the rates of the tax and in the method of its collection. The excess profits tax need not long be maintained at the rates which were necessary while the enormous expense of the war had to be borne, but it should be made the basis of a permanent system which will reach undue profits without discouraging the enterprise and activity of our business men. The tax on inheritance, ought, no doubt, to be reconsidered in its rela-

DOCTOR SAYS ONE LUNG IS HEALED AND OTHER NEARLY SO

Urges patient to keep up the treatment that did the work.

"I had consumption of the lungs for six years. I had an outside operation in the open air nearly all the time. I used six raw eggs a day and about a gallon of milk. I had great many hemorrhages, and was not able to walk more than a few steps at a time. I began taking Milks Emulsion in June. I have now taken my eighteenth bottle and feel just as healthy. I had my doctor examine my lungs the other day, and he said that one of them is entirely healed up and the other one nearly so. I am now able to keep on using Milks Emulsion, which I intend to do. My original weight was 170 pounds. I have regained most of it, now weigh 180 pounds and feel almost as strong and good as I ever did. My only regret is that I didn't hear of Milks Emulsion six years ago." Grady Dees, Macon, Ga.

Whether Milks Emulsion would succeed as well for you as it did in the above case, is easy for you to find out. It is at least bound to benefit you, and it costs nothing to try it.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, does away with all need of pills and purgatives. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day. It works like magic on coughs and colds.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions, and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by

Helping Men To Buy Clothes

No man would knowingly spend his money for poor clothes but the determination to buy good clothes isn't all that's necessary—you must know what you are getting; whether the clothes are tailored right, whether the fabric is all wool and the style is good and the only way to be certain on all these points is to go to a merchant whose "word" and "clothes" you can depend upon.

BE SURE OF YOUR STORE

That's where we come in. We don't expect you to know all-wool fabrics from part cotton, to know whether the lining will wear; whether the seams are silk sewn; even an expert will fall down on these points. You don't have to worry about any of these points when you come here. We help you to buy right by having the best clothes that are to be had.

MAY RAIN RECORD A HUMMER.

According to the records kept by Harry P. Bridge Sr., who is the local representative of the Pennsylvania Water Survey Bureau, May has been a damp month hereabouts. Mr. Bridge makes careful record of the precipitation each day and this record shows that thus far there has been more rainfall during May than the total for the preceding four months of the year. Last night's drenching rains brought the total for the month up to the unprecedented figures of 7.68 inches.

The total for January of this year was 2.27 inches; February 2.02 inches; March 2.91 inches; April 2.31 inches. Thus far in the month it has rained on fourteen different days.

BUZZING BEES BUTT INTO HARMONY OF NATIONALITIES

The people living over in the southwestern end of the county sure are finicky or at least one would gather that impression from the statements filed in many of the cases which get into our courts from that section. The latest out of the ordinary case, was fathered in our equity courts by Pentz & Pentz representing Mike Magelinski, who objects to the "busy bees" of his neighbors, Frances and Joseph Kweeder.

The Kweeders possessed several hives of bees and when the glaucous springtime arrived those bees simply "swarmed" all over the neighborhood and when they decided to halt and hold a council of war, they halted regardless of where or when or who or why.

Magelinski's place was the handiest to the hives and the bees appeared to just dote on the surroundings and accordingly the busy bees were busy buzzing about at all times. Everything went along swimmingly until last year when Magelinski purchased a couple of colonies of Italian bees. Then the age-long Balkan disputes immediately got into action away over in Pennsylvania. Magelinski and all the little Magelinskis are of Austrian extraction and when those Italian bees got a whiff of the ancient and traditional enemy, you should have been present.

Talk about the charge of the Light Brigade, that cannon stuff was entirely backed off the dump by what occurred in that former peaceful backyard along the banks of the classic, but turbulent Sandy.

Everytime a Magelinski appeared out doors a shower of bees lit on him. There were bees on the right, left, in front, behind, over and under him, while several even climbed the old man's left hand trouser leg on one occasion. That was the last straw.

The court's aid was invoked and Judge Bell made an order on Monday last which provided that the Kweeders "be restrained from the further keeping of bees, Italian or otherwise, on their premises and be compelled to remove the said bees from the neighborhood and vicinity of the Magelinski property." forthwith.

LETTER FROM URBAN LEIGEY

Mr. and Mrs. John Leigey of Nichols street, are in receipt of a very interesting letter from their son Wagner Urban F. Leigey, who is in the motor ambulance service with the A. E. F. His letter is dated St. Nazaire, France, May 4th. They are evidently having real May weather over there, because he says it had been raining a week straight endways. He hopes the present rainy spell stops short of the one they had recently gone through which was just four months long.

He has been watching the French farm and says it is some job. They use ox teams and it takes them a week to plow an acre. When they do use horses they hitch one ahead of the other instead of side by side as we do here in God's country. He expects to get out of France about June first.

Some facts about prices addressed to farmers

A GOOD many people when they buy things make the mistake of thinking a price really means something taken by itself.

You know how foolish it is to buy simply because something is low priced; yet quoting low prices attracts a lot of people who don't know much about the real value of merchandise. They get a thing simply because they think it's low priced—without any regard for the quality.

We have Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes here priced at $35 to $60; anywhere else in town maybe you can buy them for less, so it's quite ridiculous for us to expect you to come to us for clothes just because of a price; anybody can match prices.

We want you to come because of the spirit of service that we have; because your money is less important to us than satisfaction; because whatever price you pay we're going to see that you get more per dollar here than anywhere else.

We want you to come for Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; because they are well made and guaranteed to satisfy you or your money back.

Presenting the Season's Newest Styles

These will be very interesting days in our Shoe department when the very latest footwear models for Spring will be presented to your attention.

Because it is the first PEACE SPRING in five years, the new season brings a big variety of footwear in styles approved by Fashion. Toes are narrow and while the French heel is favored, there is a tendency also of the low heel as well as other modification to appear on many of the smartest models. Leathers include beautiful kidskin, patent leathers and others which women favor so much.

Girls' and Misses' Shoes In New Spring Styles

The matter of correct and comfortable footwear for girls and misses have been given special attention by us, and we have learned to know their particular needs and to properly fill them. 1898 WAR VETERANS' TEXT OF PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The meeting of Spanish-American War Veterans held in the Council room last evening was attended by about twenty vets who spent some time discussing the details of the coming reunion of the old Fifth Regiment.

The matter of the selection of a date for the reunion was the principal topic and it was the general opinion that the members of the local committee should join with the Park Association in the July 4th week celebration and hold their meeting in conjunction with other big time.

President Troxell appointed Commanders Walter Welch, J. Fred Weaver and Frank D. Sonders a committee to wait upon Mayor Chase and learn from him views regarding the home coming reception for leafy county soldiers with a view to combining with the townspeople at that time and in that movement.

Action is looked for at once, and it is highly possible that several days of the week of July 4th will be given over to the old Fifth Regiment reunion: the soldiers reception, and 4th celebration.

MEMORIAL DAY ARRANGEMENTS

tion to the fiscal systems of the several states, but it certainly ought to remain a permanent part of the fiscal system of the federal government also. "Many of the minor taxes provided for in the revenue legislation of 1917 and 1918, though no doubt made necessary by the pressing necessities of the war time, can hardly find sufficient justification under the easier circumstances of peace, and can now happily be got rid of. Among these, I hope you will agree, are the excises upon various manufactures and the taxes upon retail sales. They are unequal in the incidence on different industries and on different individuals. Their collection is difficult and expensive. Those which are levied upon articles sold at retail are largely evaded by the readjustment of retail prices. On the other hand, I should assume that it is expedient to maintain a considerable range of indirect taxes; and the fact that alcoholic liquors will presently no longer afford a source of revenue by taxation makes it the more necessary that the field should be carefully resurveyed in order that equivalent sources of revenue may be found which it will be legitimate, and not burdensome, to draw upon. But you have at hand in the treasury department many experts who can advise you upon the matters much better than I can. I can only suggest the lines of a permanent and workable system, and the placing of the taxes where they will least hamper the life of the people.

"There is, fortunately, no occasion for undertaking the immediate future, any general revision of our system of import duties. No serious danger of foreign competition now threatens American industries. Our country has emerged from the war less disturbed and less weakened than any of the European countries which are our competitors in manufacture. So far from there being any danger or need of accentuated foreign competition, it is likely that the conditions of the next few years will greatly facilitate the marketing of American manufactures abroad. Least of all should we depart from the policy adopted in the tariff act of 1913, of permitting the free entry into the United States of the raw materials needed to supplement and enrich our own abundant supplies.

Tariff Revision.

"Nevertheless, there are parts of our tariff system which need prompt attention. The experiences of the war have made it plain that in some cases too great reliance on foreign supply is dangerous, and that in determining certain parts of our tariff policy domestic considerations must be borne in mind which are political as well as economic. Among the industries to which special consideration should be given is that of the manufacture of dyestuffs and related chemicals. Our complete dependence upon German supplies before the war made the incursion of trade a cause of exceptional economic disturbance. The close relation between the manufacturer of dyestuffs, on the one hand, and of explosives and poisonous gases, on the other, moreover, has given the industry an exceptional significance and value. Although the United States will gladly and unhesitatingly join in the progress of international disarmament, it will, nevertheless, be a policy of obvious prudence to make certain of the successful maintenance of many strong and well-equipped chemical plants. The German chemical industry, with which we will be brought into competition, was and may well be again, a thoroughly knit monopoly capable of exercising competition of a particularly insidious and dangerous kind.

"The United States should, moreover, have the means of properly protecting itself whenever our trade is discriminated against by foreign nations, in order that we may be assured of that equality of treatment which we hope to accord and to promote the world over. Our tariff laws as they now stand provide no remedy of retribution in case other governments should enact legislation unequal in its bearing on our producers as compared with the products of other countries. Though we are as far as possible from desiring to enter upon any course of retaliation, we must frankly face the fact that hostile legislation by other nations is not beyond the range of possibility, and that it may have to be met by counter-legislation. This subject has, fortunately, been exhaustively investigated by the United States tariff commission. A recent report of that commission makes very clear that we lack and that we ought to have the instruments necessary for the assurance of equal and equitable treatment. The attention of the congress has been called to this matter on past occasions, and the most measures which are now recommended by the tariff commission are substantially the same that have been suggested by previous administrations. I recommend that his phase of the tariff question receive the early attention of the congress.

"Will you not permit me, turning from these matters, to speak once more, and very earnestly, of the proposed amendment to the constitution which would extend the suffrage to women and which passed the house of representatives at the last session of congress? It seems to me that every consideration of justice and of public advantage calls for the immediate adoption of that amendment and its submission forthwith to the legislatures of the several states. Throughout all the world this long delayed extension of the suffrage is looked for; in the United States longer, I believe than anywhere else, the necessity for it, and the immense advantage of it to the national life, has been urged and debated, by women and men who saw the need for it and urged the policy of it when it required steadfast courage to be so much beforehand with the common conviction; and I, for one, covet for our country the distinction of being among the first to act in a great reform.

THREE GIVEN MEAL TICKET GOOD ONLY AT WESTERN "PEN."

The Clearfield County Colony in the Western Penitentiary at Pittsburgh will receive an additional three members following pressing invitations extended by Judge Bell in criminal court yesterday, when at the request of District Attorney Arnold, he insisted upon three malefactors convicted at the regular quarter sessions tarrying at this famous resort as the guests of Clearfield county taxpayers for periods ranging from four and one half years down to 2 years each.

Ralph Rhin, the Woodland negro, who was convicted of an attempt to ravish a four year old white child, was sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00, the costs of prosecution, and undergo imprisonment in the penitentiary for a period of not more than five nor less than four and one-half years, the extreme limit for his crime.

John McAvoy was given from three to four years. William Brennan was sentenced to not less than two nor more than four years. McAvoy and Brennan were convicted of robbing Martin Montgomery at DuBois.

The men found Montgomery in an intoxicated condition and after imperious officers and "arresting" him succeeded in getting away with his "roll".

William Hall, a young colored man from Curwensville who recently slashed a Curwensville white man during an altercation at a local hotel, was sentenced to Huntingdon reformatory.

Daisey DeWitt, Jr., a bad boy from Irvonia, who had entered a plea of guilty to larceny was sent to Glenn Mills.

CURWENSVILLE

NEWS JOTTINGS FROM SISTER CITY OF CURWENSVILLE

Louise, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson of Irwins Hill celebrated her sixth birthday on Monday, May 19th, by entertaining about twenty of her young friends at an afternoon party. After spending the early part of the afternoon with games and music a most delicious lunch was served at tables on the lawn and when the guests departed they left best wishes and many pretty gifts for their little hostess.

Mrs. C. S. Russell and son William, who have been spending the past 7 or 8 weeks with Mr. Russell at Atlantic City and other places returned home Tuesday evening. Mr. Russell who at present is at a sanitarium near West Grove, Pa., expects to join them in a couple of weeks and a host of friends are glad to learn of his return to health.

Mrs. D. E. Reed who has been quite ill at her home on Irwins Hill for the last week, is much improved.

Anthony Enigo, who served overseas with the famous Rainbow Division has been mustered out of the service and returned to his home at this place on Saturday.

Mrs. J. E. Kratzer is confined to her home on Main street by a serious attack of neuralgia.

Miss Esther Twigg left last evening for Wilmington, Del., where she will spend the next week or ten days.

Mrs. Alex Harper of Glenn Richey, left for DuBois last evening where she will attend the funeral of the late William Brown which will be held at that place today.

Miss Pearl Frantz of Endicott, N. Y., is the guest of friends and relatives at this place.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William McClure of the South side on Tuesday evening, May 21 a little son. Mr. McClure who was taken to the Clearfield field Hospital after being injured in auto accident at this place on Tuesday, is reported as getting along very nicely.

The funeral of Mrs. Porter McClure will be held from the M. E. church, Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Interment in Oak Hill Cemetery. Mrs.

McClure was the daughter of Samuel and Amor Tate and was born near Clover Hill, this county. Her husband, the late D. Porter McClure, preceded her to the grave 11 years ago, dying December 28th 1911. Two children survive the mother; one daughter, Mrs. H. C. Burkett, of Curwensville, and one son, Mr. Tilden McClure of Litchfield, Minn.

DROP IN CHOCOLATES

There were several "drops in chocolate" or several "chocolates" dropped down in the Fourth ward yesterday afternoon when four females and one male member of the African colony down there engaged in a strenuous battle royal. The affair started between two women and when the mother and aunt of one of the participants horned in on the fray the other woman's husband appeared on the scene. He proved equal to the occasion and as the result of a few left and right hand jolts to the jaw soon had the three enemy scrappers piled along the curb like cold wood, or more properly speaking, pine knots after the fire had swept the woods. It was some task too, because the "ladies" were seasoned scrappers and have been returned winners in many battles among the buff residents down that way.

The local and state police gathered in the scrappers and an armistice was declared before Squire Chorprenning who was shy on fourteen points but countered by having the fighters dig up fourteen "bones."

THE FIRST SNAKE STORY.

A. W. Leonardson and Henry G. Dill came in from Roberts Run the last of the week with the first snake story of the 1919 season. While engaged in the pleasant pastime of yanking speckled beauties from the rifles and limpid pools of Roberts Run, their right of way was disputed by a huge yellow rattler, which the fishermen dispatched after considerable of a battle.

The monster measured forty-six inches in length and packed a string of eleven "bells."

Quit Meat When Kidneys Bother

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Troubles You.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become over-worked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and eat about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

LIEUTENANT BERYL READ

Lieut. Beryl Read, president of C. H. S. Class of 1917, and a Clearfield county boy who earned a commission while in France, with the A. E. F., in a letter to his mother, Mrs. Perry Read, of Kerrmoor, written at Le Mans, France, on April 30th last, says he is one of the Assistant Range officers in the big A. E. F. rifle, pistol and musketry competition, May 5 to 24.

He traveled from Gondcourt to Le Mans in a special American troop train which made at least five miles an hour. Tours is the nicest town he visited while in France. In describing a visit through Tours, he tells of seeing the cathedral and travelling up the right tower a circling staircase of three hundred steps. He visited the art gallery and saw a picture valued at one million francs, but said he would much rather have had the money, as he was not much on pictures. Lt. Read has been all over France and has had some wonderful experiences and like the rest of the boys, prefers to hustle back to Clearfield county.

TITANIC SURVIVOR TREATS AUTOBUMP AS SORT OF JOKE

William Borag was struck by a car driven by a woman on Second street, near the Parochial school early yesterday noon. He was hurried to the Clearfield hospital where it was found that he was only slightly hurt.

Young Borag never minded a little thing like being knocked down and run over by a flivver such little trifles cause him no concern whatever. He with his brother were passengers on the ill-fated Titanic when she went down off the coast of New Foundland several years ago and since they got by that awful happening, an accident such as this one they regard as all in the game.

Chester Dunlap, a 10 year old Fifth street lad, was pretty severely bumped yesterday afternoon about 3:30 when he ran right into an automobile driven by Jesse Mann and was hurt several feet, alighting on the brick street on his head and shoulders. The accident occurred at the corner of Market and Third streets. The boy started to run across the street without any regard to passing vehicles and ran right into the car, the rear mud guard striking him and knocking him down. Witnesses of the accident picked the lad up and Mr. Mann hurried him to Dr. Yeaneys office in his car, where it was found that aside from a shaking up he was uninjured.

If Ilyria is to be the name chosen by the Jugo-Slavs as that of their country, another of Shakespeare's states besides Bohemia will take its place in the European family of nations. The citizens of Ilyria, of Shakespeare's Ilyria, are very well known in literature. Every one knows Viola and Malvolio, to say nothing of the famous Sir Toby Belch. Ilyria was a Roman denomination, and the name was revived only in the first years of the Nineteenth century, for the convenience of sweeping into one bag all those territories which became the appanage of the Austrian crown.

Two items in the news are seen to have a close connection, when placed side by side. One points to a recrudescence of interest in the raising of fruit in America. The other reports that in Belgium alone 170,000 acres of fruit orchards have been ruined, and that in France 500,000 fruit trees were destroyed by gunfire and by the Germans. It is evident that American orchardists will be called upon to fill a great void in the European fruit market, and that they are getting ready to grasp the opportunity.

Shopkeepers in Coblentz who have been selling iron crosses with the American flag pinned to the ribbons have been sent to jail, and all have been warned that any disrespect to the American colors will be punished. American tolerance, which they do not understand in a conqueror, has made them forget the Americans are their masters.

Hot Water The Best Liver And Bowel Medicine

Says Glass of Hot Water Before
Breakfast Washes Poisons
From System.

Physicians the world over recommend the inside bath, claiming this is of vastly more importance than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing ill health, while the pores in the ten yards of bowels do.

Men and women are urged to drink each morning, before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of helping to wash from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, the previous day's indigestible material, poisons, sour bile and toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach.

Just as soap and hot water cleanse and freshen the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the eliminative organs.

Those who wake up with bad breath coated tongue, nasty taste or have a dull, aching head, sallow complexion, acid stomach; others who are subject to bilious attacks or constipation, should obtain a quarter pound of limestone phosphate at the drug store. This will cost very little but is sufficient to demonstrate the value of inside bathing. Those who continue it each morning are assured of pronounced results, both in regard to health and appearance.

Thomas Griffin of Rochester, N. Y. is visiting his sister Mrs. Thomas Beahan on Ogden avenue.

Mrs. William Orr of Glen Richey, spent a few hours in town this morning on her way to DuBois. Mrs. E. W. Bell, of Bells Landing was shopping in town yesterday.

Y. M. C. A. ACTIVITIES

The rain has stopped the Twilight League games but the regular scheduled games will be played as they are on schedule and the postponed games will be played on Wednesdays and Saturday evenings. The Y. M. C. A. team will play the H. W. R. Co. team this evening at 6:15.

Call at the association and get one of the annual reports for the year May 1, 1918 to May 1, 1919. It is one of the best reports in the history of the association. 95683 members and friends visited and used the association during the year. We now have 436 men and boy members and 317 ladies and girls attending gymnastum classes.

The Secretary has received five hundred feet of local moving picture film, he made of our local soldier boys when they left for the war. He will show this in connection with the four hundred feet which the moving picture man made of Clearfield's principal buildings and over five hundred local actors. Watch for the date.

All persons interested in the public play ground for our boys and girls, this summer, will please call at the association and assist the secretary in his plans for same.

Mrs. Graffius' Camp Fire Girls supplied the city churches, with beautiful bouquets, Sunday morning, of wild honeysuckles and dogwood flowers. They will meet at the association, Saturday afternoon at 3:00 for an auto ride and gather flowers for the hospital and their sick friends.

TAXPAYERS' ATTENTION

All persons owing 1918 taxes must make payment on or before June 1st, otherwise their account will have to be let for collection. I am compelled to settle my 1918 duplicates by that time and must have the taxes. Save trouble and additional expense by heeding this notice. E. D. R. TAYLOR, m20-6t-eh. Tax Collector.

I Could Talk for a Week

About the great national farm weekly, but you'll never understand how good it really is until you see it and read it and know it. Then you'll never be without

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

I'll be glad to lend you my copy of this week's issue—though goodness knows you don't have to make a very big investment to buy a year's subscription. Only one dollar.

And it brings you a whole year of farm progress. Up-and-coming farmers from Maine to Texas sweep THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN these days. It's a big, broad, thoughtful, practical friend of the farmer in all his problems and perplexities. It's interesting and entertaining and instructive; it's for Father, Mother, Sister and Brother, with something for everybody, from the hard-headed crop and livestock articles all the way to the good wholesome jokes on the last page. You can't go wrong when you buy it. Just send me your name and your dollar, and your subscription will begin next week.
